TERRIBLE CASUALTY.—The Statesman of Colonel's word.

The Habeas Corpus Cases—the Gazette We extract the following surprising, curlus and inconsistent language from the DAVID CLARE, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR. The decision of Judges Swan, Scott and Peck—a syllabue of which we present it another column—is impregnable. The Fogistive Slave Law, odious as it is, in all its parts, cannot be legally resisted. The Courts, National and State—Republican For Locals, Telegraph, and other and Democratic have invariably pronounce matters of interest and information, see ed it constitutional. Every effort hitherto of resistance has ended in the punishment of the resistants. The remedy therefore, is in repeal or amendment; not in force.

The arguments "are imprognable," that is unanswerable, and therefore correct and log; ical. Hence the Gazette believes the Fugi-RUFUS P. RANNEY, of Cuyahoga County, tive Law to be Constitutional, and thinks there is no getting around that conclusion. Now, we are wonderfully mistaken if our neighbor has not heretofore taken the position, and upheld it with all the ability of which he is distinguished, that the Fugitive Act was unconstitutional. We think not.

The following is the language to which the Journal refers, so heartily en lorses, and recommends as eminently orthodox:

As a citizen I would not deliberately violate the Constitution or the law by interfered, a conflict would have resulted.—
Who would have ventured to take up arms against the General Government? Would have remained in the constitution or the law by interference with fugitives from service. But if a weary, frightened slave should appeal to me and put them in battle array? Who would pay the troops? Ohio White Sulphur Springs, Announcement of the Proprietor for the Beason of 1859.

THE OHIO WHITE SULPHUR.

SPRINGS are situated in Delaware county, 15 miles north from Columbus, the Capital of Ohio, on the Scioto River, 10 miles from Delaware, 5 miles from the White Salighur Station, on the Springsed, Mount Verson and Pittsburg Bail-Roads, and to miles from Pleasant Valley or Springs Station, on the Columbus, Figua and Indiana Sail-Road. These springs will open for the reception of visitors

ON THE PIEST DAY OF TUNE.

ON THE PIRST DAY OF JUNE. The fingrovements of 1856 have been large, enabling the proprietor to accommodate from five to six hundred guests. Among these improvements may be mentioned a large and slegant hotel, new cottage rows, additional buildings for amusement and "secretion, extensive bath-houses, a steam and secretion, extensive bath-houses, a steam laundry, &c.

Upon the estate there are five Springs, all within the laws, four of which, the Weiltz Sulphum, the Chalvelare, the Madresian and the Saling Chalvelare, are decidedly medicinal, while the fifth is remarkable for the purity of its water.

THE WHITE SULPHUR

is a beautiful Artesian Fountain, situated near the roury bank of the Scioto River. At the depth of 160 feet below the level of the Scioto flows the remarkable stream of supplur water which supplies this Spring. This stream was discovered some thirty years ago by a gentleman who was boring for sali. The water, when reached, at once arose to the surface, and has ever time continued to flow, during all seasons, without change or abatement, either in quality or volume.

MEDICINAL PROPERTIES. For years these Springs have been highly esteemed for their medicinal properties. During the past season their reputation in this respect has been singularly confirmed. They were administered by a physician, judiciously as to quantity, time of drinking, continuance, se., and under this systematic plan the cures were numerous and sratitying.

THE WHITE SULPHUR WATER

100 Sacks Salt Is peculiarly serviceable in those disorders of the Liver and Stumach which so often afflict gentlemen, which have been too closely confined to business, and persons of sedentary habits.

THE CHALYBEATE SPRINGS Are permanent tonics. Their effect upon broken-down and debilitated constitutions have been not transient but lesting, giving to the blood a new vi-tality, and to the person new life and vigor. THE MAGNESIAN WATER
